

Case Statement

Charlotte Jewish Day School

Where children in this generation and generations to come will find their Jewish identity.

"I do worry where children in this generation and generations to come will find their Jewish identity. I can guarantee they will find it at CJDS, along with a strong academic foundation that will take them anywhere they want to go." (a CJDS parent)

Charlotte Jewish Day School is the only Jewish Day School serving the Piedmont region of North Carolina. Established as a community day school in 1999, CJDS has been an integral part of the Charlotte Jewish community, providing the finest academic and Judaic education for Jewish children of all denominations from Kindergarten through 5th grade. Located on Shalom Park, CJDS provides an exemplary education built on Jewish beliefs, traditions and values in a nurturing and innovative environment.

"When a child's guide is an ancient text that was a gift from God and has been followed by the Jewish people from generation to generation, somehow that "guide" is very powerful. The Torah stories truly teach why we are here and how, together, we can improve the world. It is not by coincidence that the children at CJDS truly learn what it is to be a mensch." (a CJDS parent)

Charlotte Jewish Day School (CJDS) is accredited by the National Association of Independent Schools and the North Carolina Association of Colleges and Schools (SAIS and SACS). Our interwoven general studies, Judaic and Hebrew immersion programs prepare students for success in the world at large by developing critical thinking and language skills that are immeasurable tools for life. The small class size, differentiated learning, and close student-teacher relationships create happy, respectful, motivated students who become lifelong learners.

CJDS graduates continue to excel in the best middle schools, high schools, colleges and beyond. They consistently become leaders in their academic, philanthropic and Jewish communities. CJDS strengthens the future of the Jewish people by graduating students with a strong Jewish identity and a lifelong connection to Judaism.

Leaving a bequest or planned gift to CJDS distinguishes you as a visionary who:

- recognizes that Jewish education is a cornerstone of our community
- realizes that every Jewish child, regardless of financial circumstances, has been given the birthright of a Jewish education
- believes that instilling a love for learning and Torah in our children will inspire future generations to make Judaism a vital part of their lives
